Operations (The Don)

December is when Boys become Men, or not at all

Everyone now has more work they can poke a stick at, thank you to all for your efforts, especially those that have gone beyond the call of duty to help out were required

- Ronny doing almost a 2nd route run at short notice today
- Zahra once again chopping out a Teammate
- The Big Dog on the road sweating it up
- Did the worst drop in Victoria this morning, Apco Grovedale

- Says rear delivery in instructions, No rear Access
- Drove to the rear to find a Wall!
- 20 Minutes later trying to get back around due to duplicated road, only parking is along the far edge, with a 75 meter walk to there storeroom at the back as it turns out
- Then the Storeman enlightens The Don he wanted half of it at the front door, after delivering ½ of the 87 cases into the back
- He was good enough to give The Don a water though for his trouble!

16 Working days remaining until The Big Fella climbs down the Chimney, have you been Naughty or Nice? I hope for your sake you get some nice prezzies

Warehouse

Well, they weren't lying when they said peak season is here! The countdown to Christmas is on and the warehouse is still as full as ever. Each day feels like an almost constant flow of inbound stock! (still waiting for that bigger boat). Truck load, after truck load of stock arriving keeping everyone in the warehouse on their toes. Thank you to all the warehouse staff for their consistent efforts, keep up the good work!

If you know anyone with experience on a High Reach please put them in contact with Jon Travis on 0433733568.

Sales

There is plenty going on on the sales front only problem is - there's simply not enough trucks and not enough people (help us get the people in!!! Uncles, Aunts, friends of your uncles and aunts anybody).

Guys upstairs are doing an amazing job - we are booked out for removals until something like the back end of December and Brown Dogs (Alisha for the un-initiated) spends her days trying to find a gap somewhere, just to keep her clients happy. Oz service has nothing on what the yanks do to make sure their clients are happy.

With regard to the non-removals stuff - as implied above, there is plenty of demand for our services from potential new clients (thanks mainly to the amazing and loyal people we have on the road and in the warehouse), however, we are forced to punt it all into 2022 to make sure our existing clients (whom have been loyal to us for years) are the first priority. We will keep working and grinding and make sure we do what we do best for the next month.

The Boss

I was starting to think that maybe it wasn't going to be a big peak. We saw a spike during and after cup week and then it died down a little bit. The last couple of days has reminded me that it's called peak for a reason! The scramble is on. Like I said last month - its hard work but its great fun, so embrace it and get your name up in lights so you get your hands on a couple of vouchers or some lunch money which kicks off in December.

Bad news for me is the ankle has come mostly good - so it won't be too long until Walshy gives me the tap on the shoulder and says I have a cream run for you at Schweppes - I can almost guarantee he will throw 3 or 4 keg deliveries on the back of the truck, just to remind me who is boss this time of year.

MOVEMBER!?

PST CUSTOMER OF THE MONTH!

DECEMBER 2021

This month we celebrate a client that has been with us for over 15 years. And 15 years means through a lot - thick and thin and everything in between.

Now called endeavour beverages, we started with Cellarmaster in 2007 and have been doing business on a weekly basis with them every single week since. During difficult times for the business, of which there have been a few, as most businesses have, EB has been a stalwart - always reliable and always there.

This month I would like to take the time to celebrate our relationship and say thankyou. And in particular say thank you to Matt and Harley whom have now been in daily contact with the ops team for many years. We work together and we do it well.

Check them out!
